

Mental Health Worker

Certificate IV in Mental Health
Diploma of Mental Health

Community Services, Health and Education Training Council

Job Overview

Mental Health Workers provide mental health support in conjunction with a range of other health care professionals including psychologists, clinical psychologists, mental health nurses, general practitioners and social workers.

Mental Health Workers encourage people experiencing mental health issues to engage in community participation.

Traineeships are available.

More information (incl. salaries) is available by visiting the websites listed below.

Need more info?

Career Centre

www.careercentre.dtwd.wa.gov.au

CSH&E Training Council

www.csheitc.org.au

